

Keep NJ's Do Not Call List as is. Calls are still coming through. I am tired of politely stating I am not interested in the call and then being screamed at by a stressed out telemarketer. I am still getting charity calls which I think should stop also. If I want to give I will through the mail and never over the telephone. Do not give in to the pressure from these type of companies. Stand firm. Thank you.